
Name

Government Honors Summer Assignment
U.S. Constitution
rhondacampbell@salemvikings.org

This assignment is due the first day of class. It will be counted as a test grade. This assignment is a prerequisite for the Government Honors class. Incompletion of this assignment will disqualify you from being in Government Honors. This is your independent answers. Do not copy another's work or the internet to answer a direct question.

Please contact me at the above email address if you have any questions.

An online Constitution is available at: www.usconstitution.net/const.pdf OR www.billofrightsintstitute.org

PART I - Read each article of the Constitution. Summarize the general purpose or subject of each article in one to two sentences in the chart below.

Article I
Article II
Article III
Article IV
Article V
Article VI
Article VII

1. What eligibility requirements does the Constitution establish for members of the House of Representatives?

2. What eligibility requirements does the Constitution establish for members of the Senate?

3. What eligibility requirements does the Constitution establish for the President?

4. The powers of the Constitution that are specifically granted to the branches of government or to office holders are called expressed powers.

a. Identify two expressed powers of the president.

b. What are the expressed powers of the vice president?

c. Identify three expressed powers of Congress.

5. According to the principle of checks and balances, each branch of the government must have control over the other branches. Look at the first three articles of the Constitution and identify one of each type of checks and balances. Indicate where each power is listed in the Constitution.

a. A power that the executive branch has over the legislative branch:

This is found in Article/Section? _____

b. A power that the executive branch holds over the judicial branch:

This is found in Article/Section? _____

c. A power that the legislative branch holds over the executive branch:

This is found in Article/Section? _____

d. A power that the legislative branch holds over the judicial branch:

This is found in Article/Section? _____

e. A power that the judicial branch holds over the executive branch:

This is found in Article/Section? _____

f. A power that the judicial branch holds over the legislative branch:

This is found in Article/Section? _____

6. According to Article I of the Constitution, who has the power to declare war?

7. What power does the Constitution give the President in the area of war?

PART II – MAJORITY OR SUPERMAJORITY?

The Constitution requires a simple majority for some actions and a supermajority for others.

A simple majority means more than half, while a supermajority involves a 2/3rds or 3/4ths majority vote. Most elections in the U.S. require a plurality, or the most votes, but not necessarily a majority.

1. What body(ies) have the power to override a presidential veto? _____
 - a. What margin is required to override a presidential veto? _____
 - b. Where in the Constitution is the veto power described? _____

2. What body has the power to ratify treaties? _____
 - a. What margin is required to ratify treaties? _____
 - b. Where in the Constitution is the ratification power described? _____

3. To impeach means “to bring charges against” or “to indict.”
 - a. Which body has the power to impeach the president? _____
 - b. Where in the Constitution is the impeachment power described? _____

4. What body has the power to convict the president of charges brought against him in the impeachment process and thereby remove him from the presidency? _____
 - a. What margin is required to convict and remove a president? _____

5. What body has the power to accept or reject a president’s nomination to the Supreme Court?

 - a. What margin is required to elevate a nominee to the Court? _____
 - b. Where in the Constitution are judicial nominations described? _____

6. If no candidate for the presidency wins a simple majority of the electoral votes, what body has the power to choose the president? _____
 - a. What margin is required to choose the president? _____
 - b. In which two parts of the Constitution is the Electoral College described?
_____ & _____

7. A filibuster is a procedural method to “talk a bill” to death and prevent a vote on a measure.

a. What body has the ability to filibuster? _____

b. How many votes does it take to invoke “cloture” and end a filibuster? _____

8. The Constitution specifies a 3/4ths majority on just one process. What is it? _____

9. What are two ways that amendments to the Constitution can be proposed?

10. What are two ways that amendments to the Constitution can be ratified?

PART III – Amendments to the Constitution

The first ten amendments to the Constitution protect citizens from the will of the majority. In other words, no majority could vote to take away these rights. Read each amendment to the Constitution and answer the questions below.

1. Outline the general purpose of the first 10 Amendments (Bill of Rights)

Amendment 1
Amendment 2
Amendment 3
Amendment 4
Amendment 5
Amendment 6
Amendment 7
Amendment 8
Amendment 9
Amendment 10

2. Which amendment(s) of the Constitution protect the rights of women?

3. Which amendment(s) of the Constitution protect the rights of African Americans?

4. Which Amendment finally made a federal income tax Constitutional?

5. Find the Amendment that changed the method of election of U. S. Senators.

How were they chosen before this was ratified?

6. Which Amendment concerns voting rights in DC? _____

What rights do they have to representation at the national level? _____

7. The 25th Amendment describes the sequence of events that would install the vice president as acting president against the will of the president. Outline how that is supposed to happen.

8. Which Amendment allowed 18 year-old high school students to vote?

Bonus. The person who can come up with a mnemonic or other good memorization device to remember all the Amendments will receive 5 bonus points in the first quarter. Describe it below and be prepared to share it with the class. For example create an illustration, song, rap save it to a flash drive or create your own YouTube presentation.